Over the last 30 years, the establishment and development of the Chen family international association has followed the wishes and built upon the vision of my ancestors including our founder, my great, great Grandfather. We all must continue to follow and respect each other, strive to absorb the ancient knowledge and understanding of the ancients and respected elders including my ancestors and subsequently pass on to all generations the teachings of:

Respect for one's teacher and the teachings itself, honor your responsibility to future generations

Strictly observe the rules and regulations set by the past generations of the association

Honor and practice the traditional martial conventions (Wu Duc) of:

Loyalty, Ethical, Respect, Humbleness, Trustworthy, Perseverance, Patience, Conscientious, Consistent in practice and Determination

For your continued development and to enhance and increase your knowledge for the empowerment of the general organization I have planned the 2018 activity plan and I welcome to this event all our HSG, WST, Masters and all registered members and their families to participate in the exultant activities.
